WEST & WILLSON'S DOUBLE THREAD

This Celebrated Machine was Patented June 20th

At the Ohio State Eair held at Sandusky, 1858, and at every County Fair in the State, where the san has been exhibited. To all who are in need of sewing,

Come fiscen to our truthful showing, For we have proof as will be seen That West & Wilson's "THE Machine." It sews all thread without re-winding, From off two spools, securely binding. Its seems so strong it can't be risped. If every fourth stitch should be clipped.

It sews all cloth both thick and thin. From the lightest silk to thick doe skin, It also will stitch, hem and gather, And if you want it will sew leather. It also will make very nice embroider,

And it is very easy kept in order, For its construction is so true That any one can learn to sew. Its speed for stitch you'll wonder too,

But that does make it no less true, That this Machine has power within it, To take twelve hundred in a minute. And last not least, it makes all stare To think a thing so very rare, Is sold so cheap, there's some alarmed, For fear the makers will be harmed.

But we in view of the hard times, Will have to work for a few dimes, Then drop a line, enclose "the tin," And order one from L. G. BLINN. Send for a circular containing full particulars

NUNAN'S MAP OF ASHLAND CO.

MAP OF ASHLAND CO.

THE UNDERSIGNED proposes, provided sufficient encouragement be given, to publish a large and beautiful MAP OF ASHLAND COUNTY. from actual and original surveys. All the Public Boads. Railroads, Post Offices, Churches, School Houses, Stores, Tayerns, Mills, Blacksmith and Cabinet Shops, and all manufacturing establishments are to be shown on the Map, in addition to the Topography of Rivers. Orecess, Ponds, Mountains, etc. The Map will also show all the sections, with their numbers and sub-divisions, and farms with their numbers and sub-divisions, and farms with their number of acres, and houses in each township in the County, with the property owners name generally on each farm, carefully including those who patronize the Map.

Maps of the principal Villages, on a large scale, will be inserted on the margin. The Map will also be embellished with perspective views of some of the Public Buildings; and such of the most prominent private residences as can be agreed upon by the owners and publishers.

The Map will also contain a flustpess Directory, giving the name and occupation of each person who patronizes the Map. At will be got up in the style of, the large and heautiful Map of Ashtabula County for which a premium was awarded at the State Fair at Cleveland in 1856, and the Map of Huron County, recently published, (of which over a thous sand copies have been sold.) and of the Maps of Eric and Knox Counties, now in course of publication by the same surveyor. Insize it will be about 4 by 5 feet, beautifully engraved, colored, variable ed, mounted on rollers, backed with caswas, and decivered to subscribers at five dollars a copy, payable on delivery.

PHILLIP NUNAN,

Burveyors and Civil Engineers.

P. S.—All persons called upon by either of the above, will please communicate all information in regard to their farms, and such statistics of manufacturing establishments, and answer such questions as may be desired, so that the map may be full and complete.
